

Boggs Tract Community Farm

Public Workshop Schedule 2017

Date	Title	Description
February 12 11:30am -1:30 pm	Irrigating for Drought	Learn to set up, use and monitor drip irrigation systems to reduce water usage.
March 19 11:30am -1:30 pm	Summer Veggies	Learn what to grow and how to prepare your garden for a summer vegetable harvest.
April 23 11:30am -1:30 pm	Composting	Learn how to turn your grass clippings, fallen leaves and kitchen waste into compost to enrich your soil.
May 21 11:30am -1:30 pm	Chicken Keeping	Learn how to maintain a small flock of chickens at home.
June 25 11:30am -1:30 pm	Bee Keeping	Learn the basics of keeping bees to provide honey and pollination.
July 16 11:30am -1:30 pm	Growing and Using Herbs	Learn how to raise herbs and take advantage of their culinary and medicinal qualities.
August 20 11:30am -1:30 pm	Perennial Vegetables	Learn how to select and care for vegetables that will grow year-round in your garden.
September 17 11:30am -1:30 pm	Natural Pest Management	Learn to identify common pests and diseases in plants and manage them without the application of synthetic chemicals.
October 15 11:30am -1:30 pm	Winter Veggies	Learn what to grow and how to prepare your garden for a winter vegetable harvest.
November 19 11:30am -1:30 pm	Season Extension	Learn proven methods for extending your growing season into the winter.
December 17 11:30am -1:30 pm	Soil Building	Learn the components of soil and how to build a healthy soil profile through sheet mulching, composting and growing cover crops.
January 21 11:30am -1:30 pm	Fruit Tree Pruning and Care	Learn the correct methods for pruning fruit trees for production and how to prevent pest issues with natural applications.

*All workshops will meet at the Boggs Tract Community Farm at 466 South Ventura Avenue Stockton, California 95203 and will be held rain or shine.